5. Exclusion of Liability for Consequential Loss

To the extent permitted by law, EGR will not be liable for consequential loss or damage whatsoever and however arising out of or in connection with the supply, performance or removal of the Product, including (but not limited to) any indirect or consequential loss (including, without limitation, loss of profit, loss of revenue, loss of contract, loss of goodwill or increased cost of workings) even if due to the negligence of EGR or any of its approved suppliers, employees or agents.

6. Commencement of Warranty

This warranty becomes valid only when EGR has been paid in full for all Products used. Warranty is valid from the date of purchase in full, Warranty Term does not recommence if a warranty claim is made. In this case the original warranty commencement date remains and the Warranty Term is determined from this date.

7. Limitations

To the extent permissible by law, EGR's liability is limited to replacement of product, repairing the product or acquiring an equivalent product as determined by EGR or providing a refund in accordance with clause 3 of this document.

8. Statutory Warranties

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

This Warranty is given in addition to the rights and remedies available under the Australian Consumer Law.
